ROYAL CONVENT OF SANTA MARÍA DE BENIFASSÀ

LA POBLA DE BENIFASSÀ

Founded by Jaume I in 1233, it was the first Cistercian convent in Valencia. Architecturally, different styles can be found. It had a great influence throughout history, functioning as a lordly domain over the villages and farmhouses and creating the Tinença de Benifassà. It is currently inhabited by the cloistered nuns of the Order of the Carthusian Monastery of San Bruno.

MORELLA PRISON Middle Ages

M O R E L L A

Morella prison was divided into two sections, one for women and one for men. These spaces were partially refurbished in 1992 during the restoration of the building. Thus, this space has an original cell with graffiti dating from the 19th century. In addition, these were used until the Spanish Civil War and the dictatorship.

TORRE CONJURAR CHURCH AND MUSEUM

Visit the temple and tower

VILA FRANCA

Beautiful temple from the 16th century, which combines Gothic and Renaissance elements in perfect harmony. At the back there is a crenellated tower, which forms a single body with the rest of the building and gives it the peculiar appearance of a fortress. Inside the tower is the Torre de Conjurar Museum.
